

Cookies Policy

This site uses cookies. Cookies are given in an industry standard that a webpage transfers to your computer temporarily to allow content to be customized to the user. For this purpose, cookies collect information about your online behavior. Cookies are stored for a specified period.

Types of cookies

1. Necessary

The necessary cookies help make a site usable by enabling basic features such as page navigation and access to secure sites on the site. The site can not function properly without these cookies.

2. Preferences

Cookies preferably allow a site to remember information that changes according to how the site behaves or shows, such as your preferred language or region.

3. Statistics

Statistical cookies help site owners understand how visitors interact with sites by collecting and reporting information anonymously

4. Marketing

Marketing cookies are used to track users from one site to another. The intent is to display relevant and engaging ads for individual users, so they are more valuable to niche agencies and third parties dealing with advertising.

We use cookies to customize content and ads, to provide social networking features and to analyze traffic. We also offer social networking, advertising, and analytics partners information on how you use our site. They do may combine with other information you provide or collected from using their services. If you choose to continue using our website, you consent to the use of our cookies.

We use automated cookies for browser settings to improve the services we offer. We use Google Analytics, Google AdSense and Google Remarketing. To fully control these services for you, we suggest <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>.

If you do not want cookies, all browsers allow you to disable their use, as well as delete existing ones. Your browser's help section contains exact instructions on how to disable / delete cookies.
